RETURN VERDICT FOR EACH SIDE IN BUCKS CO. COURT

Neither Plaintiff Nor Defendant Recover Financially, However

GROSS VERSUS SCOTT

Jury Decides Both Plaintiff And One Defendant Negligent

DOYLESTOWN, Mar. 12 — Judge Edwin H. Satterthwaite presided at the trial which concluded the March term of civil court. Although each side received a verdict, neither the plaintiff nor defendant recovered financially, following a two-day trial.

The jury, which deliberated about 45 minutes, returned a verdict in favor of the defendant Eva and Richard Gross, Bristol, and against the plaintiff, Winfield J. Scott, Jr., Roehling, N. J., who was suing for $528.97.

In the counter-claim, the jury returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff, Winfield J. Scott, Jr., and against the defendants, Eva C. and Richard F. Gross, 2 Venice avenue, Bristol, who were suing for $338.60.

The jury, after hearing the evidence, decided that both the plaintiff and the one defendant, Eva, being the driver of the car, were guilty of contributory negligence, and neither should be allowed legally to recover.

The accident happened May 14, 1951, on Route 13, at a Bristol intersection. The jury, being the last one drawn for this term, was compelled to return Thursday to finish the trial after others of the panel had been discharged earlier.

Because one of the attorneys was engaged in another trial, it was necessary to draw a panel of 20 men and women and have them report until 12 could be selected to comprise the trial jury.

Bensalem Taxpayers Talk Of First-Class Status

EDDINGTON, Mar. 12 — The monthly meeting of Bensalem Taxpayers' Association was held Monday evening in Otramski's Hall. Robert O'Neal presided.

There was a general discussion concerning a first class township, and Mr. O'Neal explained to a delegation from Newportville Civic Association how the township would benefit from the change. They were given copies of the first and second bulletins to take to association for discussion. All who were registered voters signed a petition. Next month's meeting date has been advanced one week, to April 7th, due to the Easter holiday.

BLOOD DONORS CALLS

The Bristol Blood Donors Ambulance transported Edward Thompson, 658 Spruce street, to the Graduate Hospital, Philadelphia, yesterday at 11 a. m. The Blood Donors administered first aid to Charles Jones, Race street, at 6:40 last evening, as he sprained his ankle in front of the municipal building.

SPEAKER FOR MAGISTRATES

Delhaas P. T. A. members will meet Thursday evening at eight o'clock in the school library. The theme will be "The Citizen Child, His Own Responsibility" in an informal play-form setting.

Two pupils from each grade will give their ideas on "What Going to Delhaas Means to Me," under a fictitious setting in the living room of Robert Synakowski, ninth grade moderator.

The following pupils will present their ideas on various subjects: Joan Harmsen, the home room training phase; Robert Morris, 10th grade, "What Will I Expect of the School in 11th and 12th Grade?"; Mary Tier, 9th grade, Club Activity; Robert White, 9th grade, Development of Civic Pride; Barbara Dunbar, 8th grade, Social Relationship; Ronald Barkafy, 8th grade, sports; Dolores Kaizer, scholarship from a general cultural background; Frank Fellemann, 7th grade, scholarship from practical educational viewpoint.

Refreshments will be served in the home economics room.

BRISTOL RESIDENT ADMITTED TO BAR

Anthony A. Mandio, 26, Graduated at Bristol High School in 1942

IS AN EX-SERVICE MAN

Monday, Anthony A. Mandio, aged 26, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Mandio of Bristol, was admitted to the Bucks County Bar of the several Courts of Bucks County.

Mr. Mandio graduated from Bristol high school in 1942. He then served three years in the U. S. Army as a Paratrooper, participating in five European Theater Campaigns and receiving the Purple Heart and Bronze Star medals. After the war he attended Temple University, receiving a Bachelor of Science degree in 1948 and a Bachelor of Laws in 1951.

Mr. Mandio has opened his law office at 120 Mill street, in association with the law firm of Eastburn, Egley & Fullam.

Robert M. Moutenay, 28, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph G. Moutenay, Doylestown, was admitted to the Bar. He graduated from Doylestown high school and received his bachelor's degree from Temple University in 1951. He graduated from the University of Pennsylvania Law School in 1948.

He began his law career with the Department of Justice in Harrisburg, and was in the Attorney General's office for three and one-half years. He was a Deputy Attorney General for a year when he decided to begin a law practice in Bucks County.

He will be associated with Donald B. Smith, Perkaskie, who presided on "Plastics."

MORRISVILLE, Mar. 12 — "Plastics" was the subject of Edward M. Linforth, Hulmeville, when he spoke to members of Kiwanis Club of Bucks County Lincoln Highway, last evening, at Holiday Inn, near here. Mr. Linforth, who is connected with Rohm & Haas Co., Bristol, showed slides to illustrate his talk; also samples of plastic materials. He was introduced by Harry McGrath.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

The new budget offered by Britain's Conservative Government promised new and substantial sacrifices for the people under a philosophy that differs somewhat from that of the Laborites. The budget called for cuts in Government spending and rewards for more work. These rewards would come through complete exemption of 2,000,000 persons from income taxes and reduced rates for earnings from extra work and increased productivity. Food prices, on the other hand, would be permitted to rise until subsidies had been cut.

The Labor party avoided a split between the Attlee and Bevan forces by condemning the Bevanites for their past sins against regularity and warning that refusal to follow majority decisions could invite expulsion.

A Soviet note asking for a Big Four conference in a German peace treaty was discounted in Washington as propaganda in view of the lack of evidence of a true desire on the part of the Russians to cooperate. Russian advocacy of a German national army and rearmament came as a surprise to the French. There was little inclination in Bonn to take Moscow's move seriously.

France's Assembly, with the Gaullists and Socialists abstaining, approved the Pinal Cabinet, 290 to 101. Trouble loomed for Premier Hillaal in Egypt when the Wafd party,

THE WINNER: "FIGHTING BOB!"

TUESDAY, MAR. 11, 1952

These lines are being written long before the polls close in New Hampshire.

We think the story is told, regardless of the votes.

That doesn't mean we agree with President Truman that such preferential balloting is "eyewash". Quite the contrary.

But we do believe that what is important in such a contest is how the candidates campaigned. "How did you fight, and why?" as the old poem had it.

And on that basis, it is obvious that the big winner was "Fighting Bob" Taft.

Senator Taft walked into a situation that was rigged against him.

The Eisenhower candidacy in the Granite State was no spontaneous, "grass roots" movement. It was a hard-boiled, cold-blooded political set-up. The entire Republican organization of the State, from the Governor right on down to the humblest janitor in the smallest courthouse, was turned into a machine for the purpose of highpressing General Eisenhower upon the electorate.

Not ideals, not issues, not personal prestige, not eloquence, not political acumen, were relied upon to get the state's delegates and preferential vote swung to General Eisenhower, but the same old "cohesive power of public plunder."

Taft walked up to this Goliath like a political David, took it on with no begging for quarter.

He drove it to cover in a blazing campaign, hard-hitting, but good-humored and gentlemanly—much of it on the radio, on television and in the movies where all the discouraged and long-voiceless Republicans of this great nation might watch and take heart.

For the first time in years, Taft brought guts, backbone and eloquence to the Republican cause. He showed why he won Ohio in a landslide, two years ago, against the aggregate political pressure of the White House, the labor-political bands, and the phony liberals.

Taft waded in. Like many another debater, back even to the times of Socrates, he did most damage by merely asking questions. And the big unanswered questions were: "Where does General Eisenhower stand on the issues—not the small fry who are running him, but the General himself? And if it is true, as

BUCKS GIRL SCOUTS MAY BUY CAMP SITE

Some Proceeds of Cookie Sale May Be Used To Start Fund

40TH ANNIVERSARY

A total of 3043 Bucks County Girl Scouts are joining girls all over the United States in celebration of their 40th birthday, today. Ever since the beginning, camping has been synonymous with Girl Scouting. The first Girl Scout troop organized March 12, 1912, in Savannah, Ga., went troop camping with their leader Juliette Low. Only four years later in 1916 the first established camp came into being—Camp Bonnie Brae still operated by the Springfield, Mass., Girl Scouts.

In celebration of this anniversary and their own 5th year a council, it seemed particularly appropriate to the board of the Bucks County Girl Scouts at their meeting on March 10, to appoint a special committee to look into the possibility of buying camp property in the county providing the money is secured. Mrs. Hillborne Dean, New Hope, announced that the make-up of the committee would be announced in the near future.

A total of 62,172 boxes of cookies has been sold to date by troops throughout the county according to Mrs. Edward Biester, Doylestown, treasurer. Some of the proceeds will be used to start a camping fund.

23 NOW IN THE TROOP

FAIRLESS HILLS, Mar. 12 — Fairless Hills Boy Scouts are now attending regular weekly meetings, and are making plans for a scrap paper drive to be held in March, according to Scoutmaster George B. Harding.

Their first hike was held recently, with eleven young boys of Fairless Hills taking part.

"We now have twenty-three scouts in the troop," Harding said. He added that any Fairless Hills lad age 11 and up who still have not joined the Scout movement here are most welcome to do so.

He announced also that eighteen other men here have volunteered Continued on Page Six

Committee Chosen To Solicit Memberships

NEWPORTVILLE, Mar. 12 — On Monday evening, the Ladies Auxiliary of Newport Fire Company, No. 1, Bensalem township, held a meeting in the fire station. Twenty-eight attended. A committee was chosen for different sections to solicit new members. Mrs. Wilbur Biehl and Mrs. John Feehan, for Newportville Heights; Mrs. Cheshar and Mrs. Urbanski, for Glenn Ashton Farms section; Mrs. Russell Brownback and Mrs. Walter Gillette, for Newportville Terrace.

A "cootie" party is planned for Mar. 24th at the fire station. A new stainless steel sink was reported purchased for the kitchen.

Following the meeting, a shower was given three members, Mrs. John Rigney, Mrs. Joseph Rigney, and Mrs. Thomas Pinto. Each received a white blanket. Decorations were in pink and blue, and a cake had three bassinettes and dolls atop.

Ice cream and cake were served by Mrs. Russell Brownback and Mrs. Joseph Mulvey.

ENNIS DIES OF INJURIES RECEIVED IN CRASH

Philadelphia Man, Hurt At Andalusia Saturday Night, Succumbs To Injuries

HAD SKULL FRACTURE

Injuries received in a Bucks county automobile accident Saturday night proved fatal today for Earl Ennis, 35, of North Philadelphia.

Ennis succumbed to a fractured skull and internal injuries suffered in a collision on the Bristol pike in Bensalem township, involving his car and one operated by Frank Bergmaier, 27, of Cornwells Heights, police said.

Ennis was operating a car and had his step-father, Rene Schmitt, as a passenger. He lost control of the machine on a curve on Route 13, near Penn street, Andalusia. The car went across the highway and struck one operated by Francis Bergmaier, who was accompanied by his wife, Dorothy and two children of Ogden avenue, Cornwells Heights.

Bergmaier suffered lacerations of the head and chest and the two children suffered cuts and scratches.

AREA RECOVERING FROM STORM DAMAGE

Lowlands Flooded; Motors At Water Plant Moved

BASEMENTS FLOODED

High water in the Delaware river yesterday flooded the wharves and docks along the river front. Lowlands were inundated. Roadways were covered with water and new excavations were washed out.

A large portion of the Bristol parking lot was covered with water and motorists were cautioned about parking their cars. Some of the cars had to be towed from the area.

The parking lot of the Bristol Trust Company was flooded.

The Bristol firemen answered a call at 6:30 p. m. last evening at the corner of Mulberry and Radcliffe, where a short circuit in the wires of the street light threatened to ignite the nearby trees. The firemen informed the Philadelphia Electric Co. which turned off the current. Repairs were completed and the lights were functioning before 9:00 p. m.

A large truck of W. W. Smith, lumber dealer of Philadelphia, was turned partly over on Route 13 back of the L. D. Davis plant at Edgely. At this point east bound traffic is switched to the west bound lane of Route 13, while work is being done at Levittown. The truck driver told police that he was forced off the west bound lane by another car during the rain. The truck went through a barrier and two wheels went off the road shoulder, sinking into the soft earth. The entire load of lumber had to be transferred to another truck and the disabled truck pulled from the mud.

In the fields at Levittown, being made ready for the housing development, miniature canals ran over the concrete bases put in for streets.

Judge Biester Suspends The Sentence of Joseph Andreatti

DROVE MINUS LICENSE

Quakertown Man Pays $146 Apiece for Three Beers

DOYLESTOWN, Mar. 12 — Judge Biester suspended sentence of six months on Joseph Andreatti, of 436 Washington street, Bristol, when he was informed that Andreatti had been accepted for military service in the Army, and is scheduled to leave Bristol next week.

Andreatti pleaded guilty to driving after his license had been revoked for speeding last January.

Andreatti was arrested by Patrolman Vincent Fargoli, who told Judge Biester that the defendant had called him an obscene name on the occasion of the arrest but that he apologized to him the next day. The officer informed Judge Biester that Andreatti had a good reputation in Bristol up until this time.

The court directed that Andreatti pay the costs amounting to about $40 and suspended prison sentence of six months on condition that the costs are paid and that he leaves for induction into the military service as scheduled.

PROPRIETOR OF LINCOLN POINT SERVICE STATION PUNCHES BANDIT AND FRUSTRATES HOLD-UP ATTEMPT

Charles Misawic Later Knocked Unconscious and is Found By Patrolman Making Routine Check; Bandit Trio Flees Without Getting Any Loot

FALLSINGTON, Mar. 12 — The leader of three bandits was knocked cold, last night, and an attempted hold-up was frustrated. The attempted hold-up occurred at the Lincoln Point Service Station, Lincoln Highway, here.

The owner, Charles Misawic, 43, of Pennsylvania avenue, was slugged from behind by a second member of the trio an instant after downing the first man to ented. Misawic lost consciousness as two members of the gang dragged the third from the station.

Misawic was found, still unconscious, about 20 minutes later by Falls Township Ptl. Julius Meszaros, who stopped by on a routine call. After being roused by the officer, Misawic checked his cash register and found the thugs, apparently unnerved by his quick action, had fled emptyhanded.

Misawic told Police Chief Franklin Kirby he was alone in the station about 8 P. M. when the first of the three men entered. Concealing one hand in his pocket, the intruder approached Misawic and demanded his money.

Misawic, a husky 200-pounder, wasted no time in expressing his objection to the robbers proposal. A fast, hard right ended the "discussion." Before Misawic could turn however, he was slapped from behind.

Kirby said the assailants apparently were "amateurs" and probably fled in a car toward Trenton or Langhorne.

Mrs. James Johnson Dies In A Phila. Hospital

Following a brief illness, Mrs. Josephine Rolls Johnson, widow of James M. Johnson, died in Mercy-Douglass Hospital, Philadelphia, yesterday afternoon. A life-long resident of Bristol, she had made her home at 703 Clymer street.

Her residence being a short distance to the rear of Bath street school, she was known to many pupils of that school who visited her home. It is stated that "throughout the years she counseled and helped many." A member of Second Baptist Church and the Suburban Baptist Church Ass'n, she was a licensed missionary of Second Baptist Church.

Surviving are the following daughters and sons: Mrs. Josephine Davis, Chas. Jackson, Staten Island, N. Y.; the Misses Thelma and Alicia Johnson, Bristol; James Johnson, Philadelphia; five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

The Rev. E. D. Feils will conduct the service at two p. m. Friday, in Second Baptist Church. Interment will be made in Bristol Cemetery. Friends may call at the church Thursday evening. Arrangements are in charge of John C. Black, funeral director.

TV SANITY CODE

A TV "sanity" code of ethics
has gone into effect amid cheers
from some quarters and dead silence in others. Only a handful of independent television stations
have failed to sign the new "code
of good practice" pact. All of the major networks and the large independents have gone along, and therefore the small minority is almost sure to follow.

A signatory pledges henceforth
to ban vulgarity of dress, word or action. Camera angles which pay attention to plunging necklines, as
the fashion advertisements refer
to them, are also out.

Programmers will pay heed to
the educational, informational and cultural needs of audiences. This doesn't imply that slapstick or vaudeville is out. Good vaudeville
and good drama will probably still
get the greatest audiences for
sponsors as the industry gropes
still farther for original techniques
of its own.

Actually the code indicates that
the first scrambling days of "getting something" on TV screens
are drawing to a close. As in the case of the motion picture industry, and with radio, the pendulum
swung well toward the limits
which the public would stand, then
gradually returned to a norm.

This doesn't indicate that movies and radio have cured all their ills. But TV, being a mixture of the two, had its own salad days
to endure before pressures from
within and without the industry
called for a long look at the direction it was taking.

WHY THEY GO TO COLLEGE

More than 50 per cent of American college students are attending advanced schools to improve their prospects for a good job after completing their education. This not altogether startling information is disclosed in
the results of a national poll of
student opinion conducted by the Associated College Press. Replies
from all sections of the nation
were remarkably uniform.

Students were asked to X one
or two of the following reasons
which came closest to their own
reasons for attending college.
Here are the national results:

A good job after college, 53 of
each 100; desire for more knowledge 37; to find a mate, 2; it was
the "thing to do," 3; parents
wished it, 4; none of these, 2.

A coed freshman in education
believes "an increase in knowledge
will accomplish all desires: Better
job, marriage, and world security."

A chemistry senior says "my
prime reason was for a working knowledge of chemistry."

"No matter how long or hard
you study," says a freshman engineering student, "you can always learn something new. The rapid advance of civilization at the present time requires a vast and
ever growing knowledge, both
technical and otherwise."

That just about sums it up.

"WASHINGTON REPORT"

By FULTON LEWIS, JR.
(Copyright, 1952,
King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 12.
Not all of the
thieving, political conniving, fixing
and five percent-
ing takes place in Washington.

Right now, in the State of Arkansas, there is underway a side
show to some of
the Congressional investigations
that needs more public attention
than it is getting. Governor Sid Mc-Math, who started a sort of bush league Fair Deal when he became Governor in 1948, is getting some
of the political shine rubbed off in
the process.

McMath has a $28,000,000 highway construction program in operation in Arkansas. This year the voters decided to take a peek at
how the money is being spent. They got their eyes opened big and bright
for their pains.

So far, at public hearings, five
major equipment suppliers have
testified that any contracts obtained from the State Highway Department were conditioned on their contributions to Gov. McMath's campaigns. Two contractors have admitted contributions of $13,000
and $9,000 respectively.

The same two contractors said
they gave $100 Christmas gifts and
made still un-repaid loans to the State of Arkansas purchasing
agent. The agent, John K. Brown,
quit after his last appearance before the State Highway Audit Commission that is conducting the public hearings. Brown admitted before departing the public payroll,
however, that he got a new Buick
in exchange for his old Chevrolet
from a dealer who was trying to sell 100 trucks to the State Highway Department.

An audit of the Highway Department books also has revealed that $2,000,000 worth of contracts have
been let without the competitive
bidding required by law, that $10,800 was paid out in rentals for
five dump trucks which were never
used on any highway construction
project; and that a member of the State Alcoholic Beverage Control
Board collected the $10,800 and
then tossed a $1,000 contribution
into Gov. McMath's campaign kitty.

because he thought it was the thing
to do.

The trick of the year, however,
was performed by a former High-
way Department maintenance engineer. He was paid a salary of $5,500
a year. Out of this he contributed
$4,000 to Gov. McMath's campaign.
There is considerable skepticism in
the state that the cash came out of
the maintenance engineer's pocket.
Two months after making the contribution to the Governor's campaign fund, he quit to take a job
with a large company that supplies
asphalt to the state for highway
construction projects.

As a result of the hearings, political henchmen of McMath's are
dropping like flies off the state payroll. Some of them give the usual reason of ill health or the press of
other business, just as do President Truman's aides and advisors
who get caught with their hands in
the wrong drawer.

Residents of Arkansas, however,
are needing the state prosecutor to
dust off his law books and haul
most of the officials into grand jury
rooms for further discussions.

The Audit Commission is assisted
in its investigation by the Arkansas State Attorney General, Ike
Murray. Murray has been accused
by McMath of political witch hunting for revealing that some of Mc-Math's henchmen deal with political
fixers and that they have their
hands out for bribes.

The Audit Commission, however,
pulled a fast one on the Governor,
so McMath's complaints are being ignored. It hired an audit firm from outside the state to go over Highway Department books. The firm
turned up all kinds of shady dealings with public funds and as a result the investigation led right to
the Governor's doorstep.

McMath is seeking a third term
this fall. He has a lot of explaining
to do about how his two previous campaigns were financed. So far,
from the evidence now on the
books, it appears that the taxpayers
indirectly did the financing, in the form of lush donations from highway construction firms that didn't
even have to go through the formality of bidding before being handed fat state contracts.

Be it Washington or Arkansas
these so-called "Fair deals" smell
the same.

The Woolgathering Child

By GARRY CLEVELAND MYERS, Ph.D.

IF SOMEONE could invent a
concentration pill, how it would sell! Parents would be willing to go without almost anything else
in order to buy such pills for their children. Teachers would spend
some of their own meager salaries
for this magic medicine.

But concentration, or the want
of it, is not affected by such simple means. There's no dosage or formula, nor will there ever be—
it's psychologically impossible.

Parents and teachers are especially interested in the child who
doesn't pay close attention to
what he is supposed to do or hear
at school, or doesn't concentrate
on his book work at home. He's scolded by teacher and parent
for his woolgathering, and often commanded sharply to "pay attention."

Numerous Causes

Daydreaming at school may
have numerous causes. An occasional bright child, finding what
he is supposed to do at school so
easy as not to seem worthy of his attention, may easily drift into woolgathering. He may keep on daydreaming when something
hard enough for him is assigned
or being done. Before he knows
it, he has missed or failed to master some bit of information or
skill, then he joins the larger
group of other daydreaming children not enjoying success at learning.

Anyway, when the child finds
that what he is supposed to do—
as in spelling, arithmetic or reading—is too hard for him to do

successfully, he is sure to grow inattentive to this matter. We are wont to assume that the child
does not try or succeed because he is inattentive. But really he is inattentive and doesn't try because he does not succeed. Of course, there are instances when
we must first capture his attention to make it possible for him to succeed.

One thing is certain—neither
the school child, nor you or I, can
concentrate well when burdened
with a sense of failure. Whatever
we can do to help a child read
better, spell better or have more
successes in other directions
should help him concentrate better.

Emotional Factors

Sometimes mind-wandering
begins and persists because of some emotional factors. The child
worried over his status in the
family or with his schoolmates;
the child supposing he is not
loved at home as much as a
brother or sister is, may not be able to get away from these worries at school. Anything the home
and school, working together, can
do to give him more peace of mind
should help him concentrate better on his lessons.

One simple way by which we
can cultivate good concentration
habits in the preschool child is
by reading to him from the time
he is two or younger. My revised
list of books from which to read
to the baby and young child may be had in a stamped envelope
sent me in care of this paper.
This folder also gives 17 good
reasons for reading to the baby.

Stop Suffering

NO MATTER HOW LONG YOU
HAVE SUFFERED, or what drugs
you have put in your body, you can now hope for MIRACULOUS RE-LIEF with natural HOPE MIN-ERAL TABLETS. In just a few days, you will see results. The black poisonous waste will begin to leave
your body and you will feel a won-derous change. Mother Nature has
blended traces of FIFTEEN DIFF-
FERENT MINERALS in Hope Mineral. Perhaps your body is craving
just one of these to start your lazy
organs working again.

Nature Heals

More and more doctors are turning back to nature for cures. Penicillin was discovered in a natural
mold growth; raw onion will kill
bacteria; and a new substitute for blood plasma has been found in Ok-
ra Plants. NATURE PROVIDES!
HOPE MINERALS come from the
earth, manufactured in nature's own laboratory. There is absolutely NO ALCOHOL in Hope Mineral. It
will not give you that false lift
which wears off when the alcohol
wears off.

The intestine is the most important organ in your body—and it is also the most abused. When you feel tired and Look Old Before Your Time,
lose that sparkle and feel dead tired,
maybe your body is craving something.

New Life

Not only will you FEEL results
with HOPE MINERAL, but you will
SEE the results. Watch your elimination a few days after using HOPE
MINERAL. You will see the waste—
BLACK AS NIGHT—begin to leave
your body and you will realize the minerals are doing their work. The
years will begin to slip away and you
will want to tell your friends and all
the world about these wonderful
minerals.

A leading Michigan drug chain wires:
"PLEASE SHIP TODAY SURE, 360
DOZEN HOPE MINERAL TABLETS."
Other druggists wire: "RUSH 24 DOZEN,
SOLD OUT, LOSING SALES." SHIP
IMMEDIATELY 60 DOZEN HOPE MIN-ERAL TABLETS. CAN'T KEEP IT IN

wires we receive continuously from all over the country. Druggists tell us they have never sold anything like HOPE
MINERAL TABLETS.

SOMETIMES we suffer so long,
we forget what it is to be healthy.
THE DOOR TO HEALTH is open to
you. When you are nervous, dull,
tired, lack ambition and sparkle,
have dizzy spells, when your powers
are weakened and life seems to have
no meaning—try HOPE MINERAL.

we are told, that the General cannot in proper dignity tell the American people the answer, why should he be asked to take him on faith? And moreover, when the time comes that he does give the answers to all these controversial issues, how are we to know that his decisions will not lose us more votes than they gain?

Only reply which this line of interrogation got for Senator Taft was a storm of personal abuse and hysterical cries that he was "unfair" and "disrespectful". But why, and in what manner? Are not these questions vital to the future of the Republican party, essential to the preservation of the nation? Are the American people children to be treated on a "Papa knows best" basis? Outstanding achievement of "Fighting Bob" was that of driving his opponents into a sort of League of Desperation—force them into that last refuge of the repudiated beaten, a "Stop-Taft" movement.

But the essential point of the campaign remains—Senator Taft has forced the season's issues to their simplest terms. Do the Republicans of the U. S. A. want another milk-and-toast campaign, of high-level generalities—or do they want a fighting campaign put on by a man who knows why he is a Republican and is proud of it, who knows national affairs as perhaps no other man in the country does, who has been a consistent winner both in elections and in national debates on key issues, who can be counted on "come out swinging" and to carry the fight through with skill, dignity and effectiveness?

And if they do, where else can they find such a candidate except in the person of the G. O. P. hero of the New Hampshire election — "Fighting Bob" Taft?

which later are to be black-topped and brought up to grade.

In the Morrisville-Yardley area electric power was cut for more than an hour. A 23-000 volt cable blown down on River Rd., between Washington Crossing and New Hope cut off power in that area, necessitating switching of emergency power from Doylestown until the cable was repaired.

Emergency crews, directed by Livingston Joyce, borough engineer, raised one of the electric motors in the filter plant on blocks and kept the plant in operation.

The Delaware river was expected to be very high during the night, according to Joyce at the Bristol Water Works. However it didn't reach the point expected. High tide again today will be at 2:30 p. m. The river water is very dirty and will require extra filtration.

At Neshaminy, 30 homes were surrounded by water when the Neshaminy Creek overflowed its banks 200 yards.

U. S. Steel Corp. announced that about 5000 workers were forced to quit construction work at the Fairless Works near Morrisville because of storm conditions in the morning. Later, the huge pools of rain water began to disappear. Operations were to be resumed today.

A great deal of inconvenience was caused from the heavy rainstorm Monday night and Tuesday in the Fergussonville section along Neshaminy Creek.

Neshaminy Creek overflowed its banks in several places and over roadways. Road barriers were placed on Riverside avenue between Hazel avenue and Park avenue.

Some residents report water in their basements from six inches to two feet deep.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. White, Park and Riverside avenue, the oil burner heating unit in the basement, had to be turned off and the family went to the home of their son, nearby, temporarily. Water was reported high near the home of Mr. and Mrs. Parker, Fergussonville, along Neshaminy Creek, where it is said the water level reached half way up their garage.

The Neshaminy Creek, and Queen Ann Creek (sometimes known as Bender Creek) were high, as were other streams in the area. With water running over the mill-race road in Hulmeville, workers could not reach the island mill of J. E. Fricke Company, and that mill was closed at noon yesterday. The lowest portion of Shady Rest Park, just opposite Hulmeville, in Bensalem township, was inundated also. A portion of the embankment of Queen Ann Creek at Laurel Bend washed out, when water covered the road-way, and flares were placed along the road as a warning to motorists. For a time yesterday the Neshaminy waters covered the road between Hulmeville and New- portville.

Advises Developing A Good Labor Force

on the subject of developing a satisfactory labor force. He is Dr. Richard A. Lester, chairman, economics department and research associate, Industrial Relations Section of Princeton University.

Dr. Lester said: "Right at present the university is in the process of making a study plan of the working of adjustments that other industry will have to make because of the new steel plant coming to this area. The development of this area into an industrial area will mean that industry will have to make a lot of adjustments and it will be felt by communities as far away as Princeton.

"This study is designed to see what is taking place now, and also what adjustments will take place at a later date. It will take in the labor market and what it will mean in the way of other plants receiving a good labor force.

"There are many problems that face any company that is in the market to purchase labor. Purchasing labor is a lot different than purchasing commodities. Labor has human elements to deal with. There are a lot of rights tied around labor. It is not like it was back in the twenties when there were no big unions to tell you what you could do and what you could not do. They have done a lot of good in a lot of cases for the working man.

"When in the market for labor today you have to deal with seniority, and thus when you pick a fellow for a job you should be sure he is the right one for that job or do not keep him 30 days. Because of this, it eliminates competition. When a worker is kept over 30 days it is hard to get rid of the worker this day and age. When you hire you are sure of having him for the rest of his life.

"Applications for work is the best way of getting help. The rate of applications you receive is tied up with whether you are hiring or not, and it is also affected by the work force you now have. The kind of applications you receive depends on the work force and your standing in the community. This brings the question up as to how a firm advertises itself in the community. Your existing work force does this and it is the best means of advertising a firm can get. There is a big difference in the way different companies look at their workers. Most companies will tell you that an application is only good for a few months. In most cases after a month or two if the worker does not hear from the firm he is no longer interested.

"The next big problem in getting a good work force is in the selection of workers. Most companies depend on the interview system. This system has worked all right so far. But the man doing the hiring should be sure that in the intake there is a percentage of promotionable people or you will not develop a good work force. This is the only country in the world where a worker can work his way from the bottom to the top."

In closing, Dr. Lester said: "There is a lot that management can do to develop a good work force. The worker looks for a lot of things and steadiness of the work is one of the things plus fairness of treatment and other benefits that management can give. If you have a good work force this shows how good you are as managers. All workers look for a chance for advancement and good working conditions; and you, as management, are the ones who have to see that they have this requirement."

Volunteers to peel potatoes for the oyster-ham supper on March 29th are asked to be at the fire station at nine a. m. that day. Arrangements were made to distribute "holiday" plates, as a means of raising funds for the auxiliary. Motion was passed to donate $150 to the fire company, this to be used toward kitchen renovations.

Mrs. Charles Thorpe, Sr., entertained members of her club one evening last week.

The State Planning Board for technical assistance to the County's Planning Commission. Discussion was held of the possibility of additional funds for technical services to local areas, primarily for zoning. It is expected a consultant and additional technicians made possible by this contract will be authorized to begin work soon.

A letter read from the Citizen's Council for Bucks County Planning invited the Commission's support in a meeting to be held March 25th at eight p. m. in Bristol high school concerning the developments of the highway development program for lower Bucks county. The purpose of the meeting is to get an interchange of ideas between the various municipal officials in lower Bucks county and the governmental groups representing highway development, as well as to enlist the support of the public in a comprehensive highway program. The Commission directed the staff to cooperate with the plans for this meeting.

The following sub-divisions were given final approval for development by the commission: Cornwells Park in Bensalem township, 35 lots; Rydal Park in Bensalem township,

19 lots; Albert B. Reel in Middletown township, seven lots.

The following sub-divisions were reviewed by the commission: Penn Valley Constructors, Inc., Brookfield, both in Lower Makefield township; Hillside Village, New Britain borough; Buckland Valley Farms, Upper Makefield township; Somerton Hills Manor, Lower Southampton township.

Bristol Man Goes Free; Will Enter The Service

RIF pattern maker $146 apiece yesterday in the Bucks County criminal court. The cost of the three drinks was made up of a $200 fine for driving while drunk, $66 in costs, plus $172 repair bill for damages to another fellow's automobile—a grand total of $438 altogether—not counting the initial cost for the three "brews."

George W. Weitz, 71, the accused drunken driver, pleaded guilty before Judge Edward G. Biester. He was probably the "most willing" defendant ever sentenced in the local court, in spite of the fine and $66 costs, the latter looked upon as "rather heavy," even by the sentencing judge.

"I know that I'm wrong, and I'm willing and glad to pay the bill," declared Weitz, who brought just $200 with him. He told the court that he'd bring down the other $66 costs in a few days, or sooner if the judge so desired.

Weitz also turned over his driver's license to the Clerk of Quarter Sessions Court and informed Judge Biester, too, that he was "off drink for good."

"I'm not a whiskey drinker, and I'm through with beer, too," Weitz declared.

The defendant told the court that he had paid $172 repair bill to the owner of a car involved in a collision with his when he was arrested in Quakertown on February 9 this year by Patrolman Russell B. Henry, of the Quakertown police. The owner of the other car was Frank Laplaca.

Weitz told Judge Biester that he had taken "several beers while on

For Normal Driving—It Loafs!

You cross over the boundary into another state—and there are the posted rules and regulations.

Maybe the daytime limit for passenger cars is "forty-five"—or "fifty-five." Or, maybe no limit at all... just your own good common sense and the general rules of safety.

Well, whatever the legal limit, your Golden Anniversary Cadillac is going to "loaf!"

Down under its hood is the most powerful engine ever used in a standard American passenger car. There's more power there than you'll ever need—except for emergency.

But don't think that power doesn't work for you—even when you're driving within the legal limits!

It works for your safety... because a great reserve of power is a wonderful safeguard in most of the driving emergencies that present themselves.

It works for your comfort... because no car rides so well, or handles so superbly, as when it "coasts along," with a great percentage of its power still under the accelerator.

And it works for your peace of mind... for it is unbelievably comforting to know you have tremendous acceleration, should the necessity for it arise.

Of course, power has to be harnessed and handled in order to be your friend and servant.

So the Golden Anniversary Cadillac has superb new brakes—larger and more efficient—and designed and built to double the span of their endurance.

And those who want the ultimate in easy handling may order at extra cost Cadillac's new power steering that eliminates up to seventy-five per cent of normal steering effort.

It would take a volume to tell you all the things that have been done to make this a "car among cars." But it will take but a mile or a minute for you to sense what it means in terms of pleasure and satisfaction.

It means something wonderful... too wonderful, in fact, to miss!

Better come in today—for a look—and a ride—and a revelation.

RED RAIDERS HAVE TOO MUCH SPEED FOR THE WARRIORS

PHILADELPHIA, Mar. 12 — The Coatesville High Red Raiders had too much height and speed for Bristol High last night as they eliminated the Warriors from the P. I. A. A. tournament at Penn. Palestra before 3,000 fans. Final score was 66-49.

The Bristol boys coped with the Red Raiders for the first quarter and part of the second. But from mid-way in the second session on, the fast break of the ultimate winners plus the control of the boards made victory certain.

The Warriors were matching the Coatesville team point for point until mid-way in the second session when the red uniformed team scored four field goals in quick succession to melt a Bristol 18-17 lead to a 25-18 Coatesville margin. From then on, it was all Coatesville as it went on to pile up a 35-21 half-time lead.

After a poor start in the third quarter, Bristol came back strong and finished the second half with 28 points, three less than the Raiders. Coatesville held a 53-27 lead with three minutes remaining in the third quarter. Mid-way in the final quarter, the Warriors shaved the Coatesville edge to 59-47 but that was as close as they got to the winners' total.

Ernie Bryant, 6' 4" center, was the big high man in the Bristol defeat. Bryant's height overwhelmed the Bristol players and gave him a decided edge in tapping in field goals and getting the ball off the boards. He ended up with 17 points.

However, high man in the game was Andy Accardi, Bristol's forward, who found the mark of the baskets early in the tilt and finished with 20 points. It was Accardi who kept the Warriors in the game in the first quarter as he scored 10 of the twelve points. He was the only Bristol player to score from the field in the initial quarter and he and Bob Stroble were the only ones to hit in the second period.

Accardi was the first player to score as he hit for a double-decker to give Bristol a 2-0 lead. On a tap, Ron Brown scored for Coatesville to knot the count at 2-2. Raul Stevens dropped in a foul and Bristol went ahead, 3-2. But Jim Lopp scored on a push shot to put the Raiders in front, 4-3. Brown's foul made it 5-3. Accardi tied the score with a fielder but he missed a foul. Jim Gallagher's foul gave Bristol a 6-5 lead. Bryant's tap-in changed the lead but Accardi got it back on a twin-pointer, 8-7. An overhead shot by Brown put Coatesville in front, 9-8 but again Accardi scored and Bristol took the lead, 10-9. On a long pass, Bryant scored and when Randler made a set shot, the count was 13-10 in favor of Coatesville. Accardi and Bryant scored as the first quarter ended: Coatesville, 15; Bristol, 12.

On a "steal," Bob Stroble dribbled in to cut the lead to 15-14. Accardi converted a foul to knot the count and then dribble half-way down the floor to score and put the Warriors ahead, 17-15. The lead was short-lived as Lopp counted for Coatesville to deadlock the count. Converting a foul, Accardi again put Bristol ahead, 18-17. But Bryant scored twice and Randler and Brown added double-deckers to give Coatesville a 25-18 margin. Stroble scored for Bristol but Al Zazo, Brown, and Randler added field goals to give Coatesville a comfortable 31-20 lead which leaped to 35-21 at half time.

Bristol's best showing in the third quarter was when it reduced a 53-27 lead to 53-36 on two field goals by Gallagher, goals by Accardi and Frank Manzo and a foul by the latter. At the start of the final quarter, Stroble scored two fielders in fast order as Coatesville was sitting back with a nice 15-point lead.

Coatesville meets Chester for the Class A district one championship tomorrow night at the Palestra.

In the first game last night, Darby High won the Class B. district one, championship by beating Prospect Park, 35-32.

BOYS' LEAGUE TO OPEN SEASON SATURDAY, MAY 17

The Bristol Boys Baseball League will officially open its season on Saturday, May 17th. With the exception of the opening games, all games will be twilight and played on Leedom's field.

As last season, the circuit will consist of four teams: Eagles, Hawks, Terrace Giants, and VFW Juniors. The latter team is taking the place of the Franklin team. The Eagles won the championship last season.

Teams will comprise boys from nine through 13 years of age. Boys not having reached their 14th birthday before May 1st are eligible. Each team will be permitted 15 players. These will be split up in various age categories. All teams will be fully uniformed.

The officials of the league, while proud of the success of the last season, feel that the coming season will see a large improvement in the playing, appearances of the teams, more efficient officiating, and an all-around better picture of junior baseball at its best.

Civic Ass'n Hears About Controversy

authority to oppose the granting of a franchise to private corporations was arrived at after consideration of many factors involved, among which were "economy, township ownership and control and availability of service to entire township."

The economy factor was particularly stressed by Mr. Booz. He pointed out that an authority is tax-free, whereas a private corporation is heavily taxed; that, since the interest on authority bonds is free from income tax, the bonds can be sold at much lower interest rates than is possible with the bonds of private corporations; that the salaries paid authority members and employees would be regulated by the township commissioners; and that an authority operates on a non-profit basis, while private corporations are allowed a reasonable profit, in fixing their rates. For these reasons, it was felt that an authority could provide the necessary services at lower rates, Mr. Booz stated.

Mr. Booz also emphasized that an authority is self-liquidating, and that when the bonds have been paid off, the entire system would automatically revert to the township. He also noted that the present applications of the Levitt interests do not include all of Bristol Township, and that there are parts of the township not now served by Bristol Borough, which are also omitted from the pending applications by private corporations. He stated that there is no certainty that these areas would ever have sewer and water services available, unless the services are established by an authority.

Emphasis was placed on the fact that the opinions of experts was relied on by the Commissioners in making their decision. Mr. Booz also stressed the importance of immediate action in the matter, inasmuch as it seemed certain that only one franchise would be granted by the Public Utilities Commission for this area.

Following Mr. Booz's remarks, the Civic Association voted to send the following resolution to the Township Board of Commissioners: "RESOLVED, that we, the members of the Bristol Township Civic Association, wish to go on record commending the Bristol Township Commissioners in their present action concerning the water and sewerage problems."

After Mr. Booz's talk 19 new members were accepted into the Civic Association. It was announced that a man from the state planning board would speak at the April meeting of the Association in the Edgely fire house.

Mr. William Harris of the Civilian Defense Program announced that there will be a test air raid drill for Bucks County on Friday, March 21st at 11:00 a. m.

their services in an active or advisory capacity to guide the destiny of the local troop.

Representing the Fairless Hills Volunteer Fire Company as Institutional Representative is Charles W. Kenny. He will act for the Fire Company, which is sponsoring the Boy Scout movement here, at local and regional meetings concerning scout activities.

The Troop Committee, acting in an advisory capacity to the scouts and scout leaders, has appointed the following men: Chairman, John Rock; Secretary, John Fissinger; Advancement, Stephen Westaby and Ronald A. Schillat; Health and Safety, Edward Kay and Douglas Brown; Finance, Robert McGonegal; Camping and Activities, Joseph Michalski and Dana Criswell; Personnel, Louis Hackett and Rev. James R. Noland; Transportation, Joseph R. Hadd, Jr., and Arthur Brown.

Other Scout leaders, in addition to Harding are Robert T. Nichols and Frederick C. Kalmbach, Assistant Scoutmasters; E. Charles Rohn,

Explorer Advisor; and George W. Miller, Assistant Explorer Advisor. In discussing plans for the future of scouting here, Harding noted that the Bucks County Council is presently conducting a county-wide drive for funds. "The monies collected will help to equip and maintain all scouting activities in Bucks County, our own included," he said. Scouting builds character and physical fitness, and trains these young men to be good citizens, he stated. The fund drive has not yet taken place here, but when it does, a generous contribution will be repaid many times in the development of the scouting organization. The troop here has been organized into patrols, and patrol leaders selected. Senior patrol leader is Bob Kay, and the scribe is Dave Patton. Patrol leaders are Nick Michalski, Tom Brown, Jim Krivac and John Rock.

Other members of the troop are John Smiley, Eddie Davison, Billy

Picadilly Weepers were the moustache and long, drooping whiskers worn by fashionable men of England in the 1860's.

RETURN VERDICT FOR EACH SIDE IN BUCKS CO. COURT

GROSS VERSUS SCOTT

Jury Decides Both Plaintiff And One Defendant Negligent

DOYLESTOWN, Mar. 12 — Judge Edwin H. Satterthwaite presided at the trial which concluded the March term of civil court. Although each side received a verdict, neither the plaintiff nor defendant recovered financially, following a two-day trial.

The jury, which deliberated about 45 minutes, returned a verdict in favor of the defendant Eva and Richard Gross, Bristol, and against the plaintiff, Winfield J. Scott, Jr., Roebling, N. J., who was suing for $528.97.

In the counter-claim, the jury returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff, Winfield J. Scott, Jr., and against the defendants, Eva C. and Richard F. Gross, 2 Venice avenue, Bristol, who were suing for $338.60.

The jury, after hearing the evidence, decided that both the plaintiff and the one defendant, Eva, being the driver of the car, were guilty of contributory negligence, and neither should be allowed legally to recover.

The accident happened May 14, 1951, on Route 13, at a Bristol intersection.

The jury, being the last one drawn for this term, was compelled to return Thursday to finish the trial after others of the panel had been discharged earlier.

Because one of the attorneys was engaged in another trial, it was necessary to draw a panel of 20 men and women and have them report until 12 jury could be selected to comprise the trial jury.

Bensalem Taxpayers Talk Of First-Class Status

EDDINGTON, Mar. 12 — The monthly meeting of Bensalem Taxpayers' Association was held Monday evening in Otenski's Hall. Robert O'Neal presided.

There was a general discussion concerning a first class township, and Mr. O'Neal explained to a delegation from Newportville Civic Association how the township would benefit from the change. They were given copies of the first and second bulletins to take to association for discussion. All who were registered voters signed a petition. Next month's meeting date has been advanced one week, to April 7th, due to the Easter holiday.

BRISTOL RESIDENT ADMITTED TO BAR

Anthony A. Mandio, 26, Graduated at Bristol High School in 1942

IS AN EX-SERVICE MAN

Monday, Anthony A. Mandio, aged 26, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Mandio of Bristol, was admitted to the Bucks County Bar of the several Courts of Bucks County.

Mr. Mandio graduated from Bristol high school in 1942. He then served three years in the U. S. Army as a Paratrooper, participating in five European Theater campaigns and receiving the Purple Heart and Bronze Star medals. After the war he attended Temple University, receiving a Bachelor of Science degree in 1948 and a Bachelor of Laws in 1951.

Mr. Mandio has opened his law office at 120 Mill street, in association with the law firm of Eastburn, Begley & Fullam.

Robert M. Mountenay, 28, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph G. Mountenay, Doylestown, was admitted to the Bar. He graduated from Doylestown high school and received his bachelor's degree from Temple University in 1945. He graduated from the University of Pennsylvania Law School in 1948.

He began his law career with the Department of Justice in Harrisburg, and was in the Attorney General's office for three and one-half years. He was a Deputy Attorney General for a year when he decided to begin a law practice in Bucks county.

He will be associated with Donald B. Smith, Perkaste, who presided.

SPEAKS ON "PLASTICS"

MORRISVILLE, Mar. 12 — "Plastics" was the subject of Edward M. Linforth, Hulmeville, when he spoke to members of Kiwanis Club of Bucks County Lincoln Highway, last evening, at Holiday Inn, near here. Mr. Linforth, who is connected with Rohm & Haas Co., Bristol, showed slides to illustrate his talk; also samples of plastic materials. He was introduced by Harry McGrath.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

The new budget offered by Britain's Conservative Government promised new and substantial sacrifices for the people under a philosophy that differs somewhat from that of the Laborites. The budget called for cuts in Government spending and rewards for more work. These rewards would come through complete exemption of 2,000,000 persons from income taxes and reduced rates for earnings from extra work and increased productivity. Food prices, on the other hand, would be permitted to rise until subsidies had been cut.

The Labor party avoided a split between the Attlee and Bevan forces by condemning the Bevanites for their past sins against regularity and warning that refusal to follow majority decisions could invite expulsion.

A Soviet note asking for a Big Four conference in a German peace treaty was discounted in Washington as propaganda in view of the lack of evidence of a true desire on the part of the Russians to cooperate. Russian advocacy of a German national army and rearmament came as a surprise to the French. There was little inclination in Bonn to take Moscow's move seriously.

France's Assembly, with the Gauls and Socialists abstaining, approved the Pinal Cabinet, 290 to 101. Trouble loomed for Premier Hillaire in Egypt when the Wafd party, controlling both houses of Parliament, withdrew its tentative support and went into opposition.

Language moderated somewhat at the Korean truce talks, but there was no easing of the deadlock. Allied planes smashed an enemy base above Pannunjom.

Cuba was returning to normal under the rule of General Batista, who was using the title Chief of State.

BIRTHS LISTED

Abington Hospital reports 42 births during last week. Females outnumbered the males — 27 girls and 15 boys. Bucks Countians listed are: Mr. and Mrs. Richard Clark, Parkland, a daughter; Mr. and Mrs. William Myers, Parkland, a daughter; Mr. and Mrs. William Kitchen, Neshaminy, a son; Mr. and Mrs. George Gares, Lahaska, a son; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Madrigale, Feasterville, a daughter; Mr. and Mrs. Claude Mobley, Jamison, a daughter; Mr. and Mrs. William Campbell, Newtown, a daughter; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bell, Doylestown, a son; Mr. and Mrs. Ellwood Davis, Croydon, a daughter; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel M. Smith, Trevoise, a son.

BLOOD DONORS MEETING

Bristol Blood Donors will meet this evening at eight in the municipal building.

THE WINNER: "FIGHTING BOB!"

TUESDAY, MAR. 11, 1952

These lines are being written long before the polls close in New Hampshire.

We think the story is told, regardless of the votes. That doesn't mean we agree with President Truman that such preferential balloting is "eyewash". Quite the contrary.

But we do believe that what is important in such a contest is how the candidates campaigned. "How did you fight, and why?" as the old poem had it.

And on that basis, it is obvious that the big winner was "Fighting Bob" Taft.

Senator Taft walked into a situation that was rigged against him.

The Eisenhower candidacy in the Granite State was no spontaneous, "grass roots" movement. It was a hard-boiled, cold-blooded political set-up. The entire Republican organization of the State, from the Governor right on down to the humblest janitor in the smallest courthouse, was turned into a machine for the purpose of highpressing General Eisenhower upon the electorate.

Not ideals, not issues, not personal prestige, not eloquence, not political acumen, were relied upon to get the state's delegates and preferential vote swung to General Eisenhower, but the same old "cohesive power of public plunder."

Taft walked up to this Goliath like a political David, took it on with no begging for quarter.

He drove it to cover in a blazing campaign, hard-hitting, but good-humored and gentlemanly—much of it on the radio, on television and in the movies where all the discouraged and long-voiceless Republicans of this great nation might watch and take heart.

For the first time in years, Taft brought guts, backbone and eloquence to the Republican cause. He showed why he won Ohio in a landslide, two years ago, against the aggregate political pressure of the White House, the labor-political bands, and the phony liberals.

Taft waded in. Like many another debater, back even to the times of Socrates, he did most damage by merely asking questions. And the big unanswered questions were: "Where does General Eisenhower stand on the issues—not the small fry who are running him, but the General himself? And if it is true, as

40TH ANNIVERSARY

A total of 3043 Bucks County Girl Scouts are joining girls all over the United States in celebration of their 40th birthday, today. Ever since the beginning, camping has been synonymous with Girl Scouting. The first Girl Scout troop organized March 12, 1912, in Savannah, Ga., went troop camping with their leader Juliette Low. Only four years later in 1916 the first established camp came into being—Camp Bonnie Brae still operated by the Springfield, Mass., Girl Scouts.

In celebration of this anniversary and their own 5th year a council, it seemed particularly appropriate to the board of the Bucks County Girl Scouts at their meeting on March 10, to appoint a special committee to look into the possibility of buying camp property in the county providing the money is secured. Mrs. Hilborne Dean, New Hope, announced that the make-up of the committee would be announced in the near future.

A total of 62,172 boxes of cookies has been sold to date by troops throughout the county according to Mrs. Edward Biester, Doylestown, treasurer. Some of the proceeds will be used to start a camping fund.

The date for the annual council

Oscar Booz Explains The Reasons for Stand On Authority

GIVES SOME REASONS

Oscar Booz, of the Board of Commissioners of Bristol Township, was the principal speaker at the March meeting of the Bristol Township Civic Association, Monday evening in the Newportville fire house. He outlined what he feels are the reasons behind the stand of the Township Commissioners on the controversy between the township officials and the Levitt interests on the water and sewer question.

Mr. Booz explained that, in his opinion, the decision to set up an

Committee Chosen To Solicit Memberships

NEWPORTVILLE, Mar. 12 — On Monday evening, the Ladies Auxiliary of Newport Fire Company, No. 1, Bensalem township, held a meeting in the fire station. Twenty-eight attended. A committee was chosen for different sections to solicit new members. Mrs. Wilbur Biehl and Mrs. John Feehan, for Newportville Heights; Mrs. Cheshar and Mrs. Urbanski, for Glenn Ashton Farms section; Mrs. Russell Brownback and Mrs. Walter Gillette, for Newportville Terrace.

A "cootie" party is planned for Mar. 24th at the fire station. A new stainless steel sink was reported purchased for the kitchen.

Following the meeting, a shower was given three members, Mrs. John Rigny, Mrs. Joseph Rigny, and Mrs. Thomas Pinto. Each received a white blanket. Decorations were in pink and blue, and a cake had three bassinettes and dolls atop.

Ice cream and cake were served by Mrs. Russell Brownback and Mrs. Joseph Mulvey.

ENNIS DIES OF INJURIES RECEIVED IN CRASH

HAD SKULL FRACTURE

Injuries received in a Bucks county automobile accident Saturday night proved fatal today for Earl Ennis, 35, of North Philadelphia.

Ennis succumbed to a fractured skull and internal injuries suffered in a collision on the Bristol pike in Bensalem township, involving his car and one operated by Frank Bergmaier, 27, of Cornwells Heights, police said.

Ennis was operating a car and had his step-father, Rene Schmitt, as a passenger. He lost control of the machine on a curve on Route 13, near Penn street, Andalusia. The car went across the highway and struck one operated by Francis Bergmaier, who was accompanied by his wife, Dorothy and two children of Ogden avenue, Cornwells Heights.

Bergmaier suffered lacerations of the head and chest and the two children suffered cuts and scratches.

AREA RECOVERING FROM STORM DAMAGE

Lowlands Flooded; Motors At Water Plant Moved

BASEMENTS FLOODED

High water in the Delaware river yesterday flooded the wharves and docks along the river front. Lowlands were inundated. Roadways were covered with water and new excavations were washed out.

A large portion of the Bristol parking lot was covered with water and motorists were cautioned about parking their cars. Some of the cars had to be towed from the area. The parking lot of the Bristol Trust Company was flooded.

The Bristol firemen answered a call at 6:30 p. m. last evening at the corner of Mulberry and Radcliffe, where a short circuit in the wires of the street light threatened to ignite the nearby trees. The firemen informed the Philadelphia Electric Co. which turned off the current. Repairs were completed and the lights were functioning before 9:00 p. m.

A large truck of W. W. Smith, lumber dealer of Philadelphia, was turned partly over on Route 13 back of the L. D. Davis plant at Edgely. At this point east bound traffic is switched to the west bound lane of Route 13, while work is being done at Levittown. The truck driver told police that he was forced off the west bound lane by another car during the rain. The truck went through a barrier and two wheels went off the road shoulder, sinking into the soft earth. The entire load of lumber had to be transferred to another truck and the disabled truck pulled from the mud.

In the fields at Levittown, being made ready for the housing development, miniature canals ran over the concrete bases put in for streets.

Judge Biester Suspends The Sentence of Joseph Andreatti

DROVE MINUS LICENSE

Quakertown Man Pays $146 Apiece for Three Beers

DOYLESTOWN, Mar. 12 — Judge Biester suspended sentence of six months on Joseph Andreatti, of 436 Washington street, Bristol, when he was informed that Andreatti had been accepted for military service in the Army, and is scheduled to leave Bristol next week.

Andreatti pleaded guilty to driving after his license had been revoked for speeding last January.

Andreatti was arrested by Patrolman Vincent Fargoli, who told Judge Biester that the defendant had called him an obscene name on the occasion of the arrest but that he apologized to him the next day. The officer informed Judge Biester that Andreatti had a good reputation in Bristol up until this time.

The court directed that Andreatti pay the costs amounting to about $40 and suspended prison sentence of six months on condition that the costs are paid and that he leaves for induction into the military service as scheduled.

LATEST NEWS BULLETINS

Eisenhower and Kefauver Win

Manchester, N. H. — Gen. Eisenhower and Sen. Kefauver registered a clean sweep of their preferential and delegate contests today in the New Hampshire presidential primary. It was an upset for President Truman, who was trounced by Kefauver. Eisenhower won all 14 GOP delegates and Kefauver all 12 Democrats. Presidential strength showed that more than 120,000 votes were cast in the Republican and Democratic contests despite an election day of rain and wind.

Unofficial reports from all 297 of the state's polling places gave this final report — Republican—Eisenhower 46,406; Taft 35,679; Stassen 6,501; William R. Schneider 221; MacArthur 3,148. Democratic—Kefauver 20,231; Truman 16,120.

Thinks Rearmament Pushing Back War Threat

Belgrade—Yugoslav Premier, Marshal Tito thinks western rearmament is pushing back the threat of a new world war. Speaking to American newsmen, Tito said: "The danger of aggression decreases daily because the west is rearming to preserve peace." He added: "The people of the Soviet Union and the eastern bloc would not understand having another war thrust on them because psychologically they are unprepared to fight."

Batista Believes Uprising "Success"

Havana—Gen. Fulgencio Batista who seized power in Cuba, Monday, believes that the uprising is "a complete success," is preparing an anti-Communist policy and plans to attract foreign investments. Batista told International News Service: "I'm sure that the revolution is a complete success but Cuba still faces many problems."

PROPRIETOR OF LINCOLN POINT SERVICE STATION PUNCHES BANDIT AND FRUSTRATES HOLD-UP ATTEMPT

FALLSINGTON, Mar. 12 — The leader of three bandits was knocked cold, last night, and an attempted hold-up was frustrated. The attempted hold-up occurred at the Lincoln Point Service Station, Lincoln Highway, here.

The owner, Charles Misawic, 43, of Pennsylvania avenue, was slugged from behind by a second member of the trio an instant after downing the first man to ented. Misawic lost consciousness as two members of the gang dragged the third from the station.

Misawic was found, still unconscious, about 20 minutes later by Falls Township Ptl. Julius Meszaros, who stopped by on a routine call. After being roused by the officer, Misawic checked his cash register and found the thugs, apparently unnerved by his quick action, had fled emptyhanded.

Misawic told Police Chief Franklin Kirby he was alone in the station about 8 P. M. when the first of the three men entered. Concealing one hand in his pocket, the intruder approached Misawic and demanded his money.

Misawic, a husky 200-pounder, wasted no time in expressing his objection to the robbers' proposal. A fast, hard right ended the "discussion." Before Misawic could turn however, he was sapped from behind.

Kirby said the assailants apparently were "amateurs" and probably fled in a car toward Trenton or Langhorne.

Mrs. James Johnson Dies In A Phila. Hospital

Following a brief illness, Mrs. Josephine Rolls Johnson, widow of James M. Johnson, died in Mercy-Douglass Hospital, Philadelphia, yesterday afternoon. A life-long resident of Bristol, she had made her home at 703 Clymer street.

Her residence being a short distance to the rear of Bath street school, she was known to many pupils of that school who visited her home. It is stated that "throughout the years she counseled and helped many." A member of Second Baptist Church and the Suburban Baptist Church Ass'n, she was a licensed missionary of Second Baptist Church.

Surviving are the following daughters and sons: Mrs. Josephine Davis, Ches. Jackson, Staten Island, N. Y.; the Misses Thelma and Alicia Johnson, Bristol; James Johnson, Philadelphia; five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

The Rev. E. D. Feils will conduct the service at two p. m., Friday, in Second Baptist Church. Interment will be made in Bristol Cemetery. Friends may call at the church Thursday evening. Arrangements are in charge of John C. Black, funeral director.

Reading Consultant Is Speaker for PTA

EDGELY, Mar. 12 — Parents of Bristol township pupils were afforded an opportunity last evening to ask questions following a talk by Morton Botel, county reading consultant. Mr. Botel, who spoke to members of East Bristol Township Parent-Teacher Association in the new Edgely school house, discussed "Your Child and His Reading." The speaker, who is also connected with the faculty of the University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, gave an enlightening talk, with insight into the technique of reading. He is, at present, conducting a reading course for between 35 and 40 members of Bristol township faculty.

The session was held in the new Edgely school, with Warren Bruce presiding. Minutes were read by Mrs. Clayton Bintliff, and treasurer's report given by Mrs. Oscar Booz. Howard Hilgendorf reported on activities of Bristol Township School Authority.

Attendance banner and $2 award were received by Miss Evelyn Teaf's second grade in the new primary school.

TV SANITY CODE

A TV "sanity" code of ethics
has gone into effect amid cheers
from some quarters and dead silence in others. Only a handful of
independent television stations
have failed to sign the new "code
of good practice" pact. All of the major networks and the large independents have gone along,
therefore the small minority is
almost sure to follow.

A signatory pledges henceforth
to ban vulgarity of dress, word or
action. Camera angles which pay
attention to plunging necklines, as
the fashion advertisements refer
to them, are also out.

Programmers will pay heed to
the educational, informational and
cultural needs of audiences. This
doesn't imply that slapstick or
vaudeville is out. Good vaudeville
and good drama will probably still
get the greatest audiences for
sponsors as the industry gropes
still farther for original techniques
of its own.

Actually the code indicates that
the first scrambling days of "getting something" on TV screens
are drawing to a close. As in the
case of the motion picture industry, and with radio, the pendulum
swung well toward the limits
which the public would stand, then
gradually returned to a norm.

This doesn't indicate that movies and radio have cured all their
ills. But TV, being a mixture of
the two, had its own salad days
to endure before pressures from
within and without the industry
called for a long look at the direction it was taking.

WHY THEY GO TO COLLEGE

More than 50 per cent of American college students are attending advanced schools to improve their prospects for a good
job after completing their education. This not altogether startling information is disclosed in
the results of a national poll of
student opinion conducted by the Associated College Press. Replies
from all sections of the nation
were remarkably uniform.

Students were asked to X one
or two of the following reasons
which came closest to their own
reasons for attending college.
Here are the national results:

A good job after college, 53 of
each 100; desire for more knowl-
edge 37; to find a mate, 2; it was
the "thing to do," 3; parents
wished it, 4; none of these, 2.

A coed freshman in education
believes "an increase in knowledge
will accomplish all desires: Better
job, marriage, and world security."

A chemistry senior says "my
prime reason was for a working
knowledge of chemistry."

"No matter how long or hard
you study," says a freshman engineering student, "you can always learn something new. The
rapid advance of civilization at the
present time requires a vast and
ever growing knowledge, both
technical and otherwise."

That just about sums it up.

"WASHINGTON REPORT"

By FULTON LEWIS, JR.

(Copyright, 1952,
King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 12.
Not all of the
thieving, political
conniving, fixing
and five percent-
ing takes place in Washington.

Right now, in the State of Arkansas, there is underway a side
show to some of
the Congressional investigations
that needs more public attention
than it is getting. Governor Sid Mc-Math, who started a sort of business league Fair Deal when he became Governor in 1948, is getting some
of the political shine rubbed off in
the process.

McMath has a $28,000,000 highway construction program in operation in Arkansas. This year the
voters decided to take a peek at
how the money is being spent. They
got their eyes opened big and bright
for their pains.

So far, at public hearings, five
major equipment suppliers have
testified that any contracts obtained from the State Highway Department were conditioned on their
contributions to Gov. McMath's
campaigns. Two contractors have admitted contributions of $13,000
and $9,000 respectively.

The same two contractors said
they gave $100 Christmas gifts and
made still un-repaid loans to the State of Arkansas purchasing
agent. The agent, John K. Brown,
quit after his last appearance be-
fore the State Highway Audit Com-
mission that is conducting the public hearings. Brown admitted before departing the public payroll,
however, that he got a new Buick
in exchange for his old Chevrolet
from a dealer who was trying to sell 100 trucks to the State Highway Department.

An audit of the Highway Department books also has revealed that $2,000,000 worth of contracts have
been let without the competitive
bidding required by law; that $10,800 was paid out in rentals for
five dump trucks which were never
used on any highway construction
project; and that a member of the
State Alcoholic Beverage Control
Board collected the $10,800 and
then tossed a $1,000 contribution
into Gov. McMath's campaign kitty.

because he thought it was the thing
to do.

The trick of the year, however,
was performed by a former High-
way Department maintenance engineer. He was paid a salary of $5,500
a year. Out of this he contributed
$4,000 to Gov. McMath's campaign.
There is considerable skepticism in
the state that the cash came out of
the maintenance engineer's pocket.
Two months after making the contribution to the Governor's campaign fund, he quit to take a job
with a large company that supplies
asphalt to the state for highway
construction projects.

As a result of the hearings, political henchmen of McMath's are
dropping like flies off the state pay-
roll. Some of them give the usual
reason of ill health or the press of
other business, just as do President Truman's aides and advisors
who get caught with their hands in
the wrong drawer.

Residents of Arkansas, however,
are needing the state prosecutor to
dust off his law books and haul
some of the officials into grand jury
rooms for further discussions.

The Audit Commission is assisted
in its investigation by the Arkansas State Attorney General, Ike
Murray. Murray has been accused
by McMath of political witch hunting for revealing that some of Mc-Math's henchmen deal with political
fixers and that they have their
hands out for bribes.

The Audit Commission, however,
pulled a fast one on the Governor.
So McMath's complaints are being
ignored. It hired an audit firm from outside the state to go over High-
way Department books. The firm
turned up all kinds of shady deal-
ings with public funds and as a result the investigation led right to
the Governor's doorstep.

McMath is seeking a third term
this fall. He has a lot of explaining
to do about how his two previous
campaigns were financed. So far,
from the evidence now on the
books, it appears that the taxpayers
indirectly did the financing. In the
form of lush donations from high-
way construction firms that didn't
even have to go through the formality of bidding before being
handed fat state contracts.

Be it Washington or Arkansas
these so-called "Fair deals" smell
the same.

The Woolgathering Child

By GARRY CLEVELAND MYERS, Ph.D.

IF SOMEONE could invent a
concentration pill, how it would
sell! Parents would be willing to
go without almost anything else
in order to buy such pills for their children. Teachers would spend
some of their own meager salaries
for this magic medicine.

But concentration, or the want
of it, is not affected by such simple means. There's no dosage or
formula, nor will there ever be—
it's psychologically impossible.

Parents and teachers are especially interested in the child who
doesn't pay close attention to
what he is supposed to do or hear
at school, or doesn't concentrate
on his book work at home. He's
scolded by teacher and parent
for his woolgathering, and often
commanded sharply to "pay attention."

Numerous Causes

Daydreaming at school may
have numerous causes. An occasional bright child, finding what
he is supposed to do at school so
easy as not to seem worthy of his
attention, may easily drift into woolgathering. He may keep on
daydreaming when something
hard enough for him is assigned
or being done. Before he knows
it, he has missed or failed to master some bit of information or
skill, then he joins the larger
group of other daydreaming children not enjoying success at learning.

Anyway, when the child finds
that what he is supposed to do—
as in spelling, arithmetic or reading—is too hard for him to do

successfully, he is sure to grow in-
attentive to this matter. We are
wont to assume that the child
does not try or succeed because
he is inattentive. But really he is inattentive and doesn't try be-
cause he does not succeed. Of
course, there are instances when
we must first capture his attention to make it possible for him to
succeed.

One thing is certain—neither
the school child, nor you or I, can
concentrate well when burdened
with a sense of failure. Whatever
we can do to help a child read
better, spell better or have more
successes in other directions
should help him concentrate better.

Emotional Factors

Sometimes mind-wandering
begins and persists because of
some emotional factors. The child
worried over his status in the
family or with his schoolmates;
the child supposing he is not
loved at home as much as a
brother or sister is, may not be
able to get away from these worries at school. Anything the home
and school, working together, can
do to give him more peace of mind
should help him concentrate better on his lessons.

One simple way by which we
can cultivate good concentration
habits in the preschool child is
by reading to him from the time
he is two or younger. My revised
list of books from which to read
to the baby and young child may
be had in a stamped envelope
sent me in care of this paper.
This folder also gives 17 good
reasons for reading to the baby.

LIEF with natural HOPE MIN-
ERAL TABLETS. In just a few
days, you will see results. The black
poisonous waste will begin to leave
your body and you will feel a won-
derous change. Mother Nature has
blended traces of FIFTEEN DIFF-
FERENT MINERALS in Hope Min-
eral. Perhaps your body is craving
just one of these to start your lazy
organs working again.

Nature Heals
More and more doctors are turning back to nature for cures. Penicillin was discovered in a natural
mold growth; raw onion will kill
bacteria; and, a new substitute for
blood plasma has been found in Ok-
ra Plants. NATURE PROVIDES!
HOPE MINERALS come from the
earth, manufactured in nature's
own laboratory. There is absolutely
NO ALCOHOL in Hope Mineral. It
will not give you that false lift
which wears off when the alcohol
wears off.

The intestine is the most important organ in your body—and it is also the most abused. When you feel
and Look Old Before Your Time,
lose that sparkle and feel dead tired,
maybe your body is craving some-
thing.

New Life
Not only will you FEEL results
with HOPE MINERAL, but you will
SEE the results. Watch your elimi-
nation a few days after using HOPE
MINERAL. You will see the waste—
BLACK AS NIGHT—begin to leave
your body and you will realize the
minerals are doing their work. The
years will begin to slip away and you
will want to tell your friends and all
the world about these wonderful
minerals.

A leading Michigan drug chain wires:
"PLEASE SHIP TODAY SURE, 360
DOZEN HOPE MINERAL TABLETS."
Other druggists wire: "RUSH 24 DOZEN
SHIP IMMEDIATELY SO DOZEN HOPE MIN-ERAL TABLETS. CAN'T KEEP IT IN STOCK." These are just a few of the wires we receive continuously from all
over the country. Druggists tell us they
have never sold anything like HOPE
MINERAL TABLETS.

SOMETIMES we suffer so long,
we forget what it is to be healthy.
THE DOOR TO HEALTH is open to
you. When you are nervous, dull,
tired, lack ambition and sparkle,
have dizzy spells, when your powers
are weakened and life seems to have
no meaning—try HOPE MINERAL.

The Winner: "Fighting Bob!"

we are told, that the General cannot in proper dignity tell the Americans that he is the answer, why should they be asked to take him on faith? And moreover, when the time comes that he does give the answers to all these controversial issues, how are we to know that his decisions will not lose us more votes than they gain?

Only reply which this line of interrogation got for Senator Taft was a storm of personal abuse and hysterical cries that he was "unfair" and "disrespectful". But why, and in what manner? Are not these questions vital to the future of the Republican party, essential to the preservation of the nation? Are the American people children to be treated on a "Papa knows best" basis?

Outstanding achievement of "Fighting Bob" was that of driving his opponents into a sort of League of Desperation—forcing them into that last refuge of the repudiated beaten, a "Stop-Taft" movement.

But the essential point of the campaign remains—Senator Taft has forced the season's issues to their simplest terms. Do the Republicans of the U. S. A. want another milk-and-toast campaign, of high-level generalities—or do they want a fighting campaign put on by a man who knows why he is a Republican and is proud of it, who knows national affairs as perhaps no other man in the country does, who has been a consistent winner both in elections and in national debates on key issues, who can be counted on "come out swinging" and to carry the fight through with skill, dignity and effectiveness?

In the Morrisville-Yardley area electric power was cut for more than an hour. A 33,000 volt cable blown down on River Rd. between Washington Crossing and New Hope cut off power in that area, necessitating switching of emergency power from Doylestown until the cable was repaired.

Emergency crews, directed by Livingston Joyce, borough engineer, raised one of the electric motors in the filter plant on blocks and kept the plant in operation.

The Delaware river was expected to be very high during the night, according to Joyce at the Bristol Water Works. However it didn't reach the point expected. High tide again today will be at 2:30 p. m. The river water is very dirty and will require extra filtration.

At Neshaminy, 30 homes were

surrounded by water when the Neshaminy Creek overflowed its banks 200 yards.

U. S. Steel Corp. announced that about 5000 workers were forced to quit construction work at the Fairless Works near Morrisville because of storm conditions in the morning. Later, the huge pools of rain water began to disappear. Operations were to be resumed today.

A great deal of inconvenience was caused from the heavy rainstorm Monday night and Tuesday in the Fergusville section along Neshaminy Creek.

Neshaminy Creek overflowed its banks in several places and over roads. Road barriers were placed on Riverside avenue between Hazel avenue and Park avenue.

Some residents report water in their basements from six inches to two feet deep.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. White, Park and Riverside avenue, the oil burner heating unit in the basement, had to be turned off and the family went to the home of their son, nearby, temporarily. Water was reported high near the home of Mr. and Mrs. Parker, Fergusville, along Neshaminy Creek, where it is said the water level reached half way up their garage.

The Neshaminy Creek, and Queen Ann Creek (sometimes known as Bender Creek) were high, as were other streams in the area. With water running over the mill-race road in Hulmeville, workers could not reach the island mill of J. E. Fricke Company, and that mill was closed at noon yesterday. The lowest portion of Shady Rest Park, just opposite Hulmeville, in Bensalem township, was inundated also. A portion of the embankment of Queen Ann Creek at Laurel Bend washed out, when water covered the road-way, and flares were placed along the road as a warning to motorists. For a time yesterday the Neshaminy waters covered the road between Hulmeville and Newportville.

The State Planning Board for technical assistance to the County's Planning Commission. Discussion was held of the possibility of additional funds for technical services to local areas, primarily for zoning. It is expected a consultant and additional technicians made possible by this contract will be authorized to begin work soon.

A letter read from the Citizen's Council for Bucks County Planning invited the Commission's support in a meeting to be held March 25th at eight p. m. in Bristol high school concerning the developments of the highway development program for lower Bucks county. The purpose of the meeting is to get an interchange of ideas between the various municipal officials in lower Bucks county and the governmental groups representing highway development, as well as to enlist the support of the public in a comprehensive highway program. The Commission directed the staff to cooperate with the plans for this meeting.

The following sub-divisions were given final approval for development by the commission: Cornwells Park in Bensalem township, 35 lots; Rydal Park in Bensalem township,

19 lots; Albert B. Reel in Middletown township, seven lots.

Bristol Man Goes Free; Will Enter The Service

RIF pattern maker $146 apiece yesterday in the Bucks County criminal court. The cost of the three drinks was made up of a $200 fine for driving while drunk, $66 in costs, plus $172 repair bill for damages to another fellow's automobile—a grand total of $438 altogether—not counting the initial cost for the three "brews."

George W. Weitz, 71, the accused drunken driver, pleaded guilty before Judge Edward G. Blester. He was probably the "most willing" defendant ever sentenced in the local court, in spite of the fine and $66 costs, the latter looked upon as "rather heavy," even by the sentencing judge.

"I know that I'm wrong, and I'm willing and glad to pay the bill," declared Weitz, who brought just $200 with him. He told the court that he'd bring down the other $66 costs in a few days, or sooner if the judge so desired.

Weitz also turned over his driver's license to the Clerk of Quarter Sessions Court and informed Judge Blester, too, that he was "off drink for good."

"I'm not a whiskey drinker, and I'm through with beer, too," Weitz declared.

The defendant told the court that he had paid $172 repair bill to the owner of a car involved in a collision with his when he was arrested in Quakertown on February 9 this year by Patrolman Russell B. Henry, of the Quakertown police. The owner of the other car was Frank Laplaca.

Weitz told Judge Blester that he had taken "several beers while on a shopping trip to Quakertown," and that he ran into the Laplaca car while making a left-turn on East Broad street.

For Normal Driving—It Loafs!

You cross over the boundary into another state—and there are the posted rules and regulations.

Maybe the daytime limit for passenger cars is "forty-five"—or "fifty-five." Or, maybe no limit at all... just your own good common sense and the general rules of safety.

Well, whatever the legal limit, your Golden Anniversary Cadillac is going to "loaf"!

Down under its hood is the most powerful engine ever used in a standard American passenger car. There's more power there than you'll ever need—except for emergency.

But don't think that power doesn't work for you—even when you're driving within the legal limits!

It works for your safety... because a great reserve of power is a wonderful safeguard in most of the driving emergencies that present themselves.

It works for your comfort... because no car rides so well, or handles so superbly, as when it "coasts along," with a great percentage of its power still under the accelerator.

And it works for your peace of mind... for it is

unbelievably comforting to know you have tremendous acceleration, should the necessity for it arise.

Of course, power has to be harnessed and handled in order to be your friend and servant.

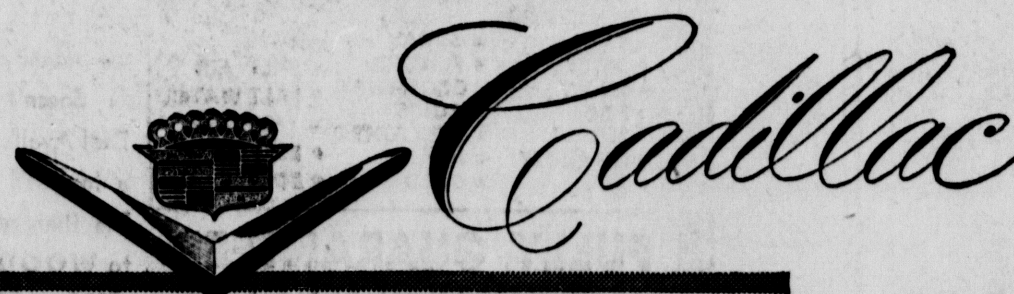

So the Golden Anniversary Cadillac has superb new brakes—larger and more efficient—and designed and built to double the span of their endurance.

And those who want the ultimate in easy handling may order at extra cost Cadillac's new power steering that eliminates up to seventy-five per cent of normal steering effort.

It would take a volume to tell you all the things that have been done to make this a "car among cars." But it will take but a mile or a minute for you to sense what it means in terms of pleasure and satisfaction.

It means something wonderful... too wonderful, in fact, to miss!

Better come in today—for a look—and a ride—and a revelation.

RED RAIDERS HAVE TOO MUCH SPEED FOR THE WARRIORS

PHILADELPHIA, Mar. 12 — The Coatesville High Red Raiders had too much height and speed for Bristol High last night as they eliminated the Warriors from the P. I. A. A. tournament at Penn. Palestra before 3,000 fans. Final score was 66-49.

The Bristol boys coped with the Red Raiders for the first quarter and part of the second. But from mid-way in the second session on, the fast break of the ultimate winners plus the control of the boards made victory certain.

The Warriors were matching the Coatesville team point for point until mid-way in the second session when the red uniformed team scored four field goals in quick succession to melt a Bristol 18-17 lead to a 25-18 Coatesville margin. From then on, it was all Coatesville as it went on to pile up a 35-21 half-time lead.

After a poor start in the third quarter, Bristol came back strong and finished the second half with 25 points, three less than the Raiders. Coatesville held a 53-27 lead with three minutes remaining in the third quarter. Mid-way in the final quarter, the Warriors shaved the Coatesville edge to 59-47 but that was as close as they got to the winners' total.

Ernie Bryant, 6' 4" center, was the big thorn in the Bristol defeat. Bryant's height overwhelmed the Bristol players and gave him a decided edge in tapping in field goals and getting the ball off the boards. He ended up with 17 points.

However, high man in the game was Andy Accardi, Bristol's forward, who found the mark of the baskets early in the tilt and finished with 20 points. It was Accardi who kept the Warriors in the game in the first quarter as he scored 10 of the twelve points. He was the only Bristol player to score from the field in the initial quarter and he and Bob Strobele were the only ones to hit in the second period.

Accardi was the first player to score as he hit for a double-decker to give Bristol a 2-0 lead. On a tap, Ron Brown scored for Coatesville to knot the count at 2-2. Raul Stevens dropped in a foul and Bristol went ahead, 3-2. But Jim Lopp scored on a push shot to put the Raiders in front, 4-3. Brown's foul made it 5-3. Accardi tied the score with a fielder but he missed a foul. Jim Gallagher's foul gave Bristol a 6-5 lead. Bryant's tap-in changed the lead but Accardi got it back on a twin-pointer, 8-7. An overhead shot by Brown put Coatesville in front, 9-8 but again Accardi scored and Bristol took the lead, 10-9. On a long pass, Bryant scored and when Randler made a set shot, the count was 13-10 in favor of Coatesville. Accardi and Bryant scored as the first quarter ended: Coatesville, 15; Bristol, 12.

On a "steal," Bob Strobele dribbled in to cut the lead to 15-14. Accardi converted a foul to knot the count and then dribble half-way down the floor to score and put the Warriors ahead, 17-15. The lead was short-lived as Lopp counted for Coatesville to deadlock the count. Converting a foul, Accardi again put Bristol ahead, 18-17. But Bryant scored twice and Randler and Brown added double-deckers to give Coatesville a 25-18 margin. Strobele scored for Bristol but Al Zazo, Brown, and Randler added field goals to give Coatesville a comfortable 31-20 lead which leaped to 35-21 at half time.

Bristol's best showing in the third quarter was when it reduced a 53-27 lead to 53-36 on two field goals by Gallagher, goals by Accardi and Frank Manzo and a foul by the latter. At the start of the final quarter, Strobele scored two fielders in fast order as Coatesville was sitting back with a nice 15-point lead.

Coatesville meets Chester for the Class A district one championship tomorrow night at the Palestra. In the first game last night, Darryl High won the Class B, district one, championship by beating Prospect Park, 35-32.

BOYS' LEAGUE TO OPEN SEASON SATURDAY, MAY 17

The Bristol Boys Baseball League will officially open its season on Saturday, May 17th. With the exception of the opening games, all games will be twilight and played on Leedom's field.

As last season, the circuit will consist of four teams: Eagles, Hawks, Terrace Giants, and VFW Juniors. The latter team is taking the place of the Franklin team. The Eagles won the championship last season.

Teams will comprise boys from nine through 13 years of age. Boys not having reached their 14th birthday before May 1st are eligible. Each team will be permitted 15 players. These will be split up in various age categories. All teams will be fully uniformed.

The officials of the league, while proud of the success of the loop last season, feel that the coming season will see a large improvement in the playing, appearances of the teams, more efficient officiating, and an all-around better picture of junior baseball at its best.

Civic Ass'n Hears About Controversy

authority and to oppose the granting of a franchise to private corporations was arrived at after consideration of many factors involved, among which were "economy, township ownership and control and availability of service to entire township."

is heavily taxed; that, since the interest on authority bonds is free from income tax, the bonds can be sold at much lower interest rates than is possible with the bonds of private corporations; that the salaries paid authority members and employees would be regulated by the township commissioners; and that an authority operates on a non-profit basis, while private corporations are allowed a reasonable profit, in fixing their rates. For these reasons, it was felt that an authority could provide the necessary services at lower rates, Mr. Booz stated.

Mr. Booz also emphasized that an authority is self-liquidating, and that when the bonds have been paid off, the entire system would automatically revert to the township. He also noted that the present applications of the Levitt interests do not include all of Bristol Township, and that there are parts of the township not now served by Bristol Borough, which are also omitted from the pending applications by private corporations. He stated that there is no certainty that these areas would ever have sewer and water services available, unless the services are established by an authority.

Emphasis was placed on the fact that the opinions of experts was relied on by the Commissioners in making their decision. Mr. Booz also stressed the importance of immediate action in the matter, inasmuch as it seemed certain that only one franchise would be granted by the Public Utilities Commission for this area.

Following Mr. Booz's remarks, the Civic Association voted to send the following resolution to the Township Board of Commissioners: "RESOLVED, that we, the members of the Bristol Township Civic Association, wish to go on record

commending the Bristol Township Commissioners in their present action concerning the water and sewage problems."

After Mr. Booz's talk 19 new members were accepted into the Civic Association. It was announced that a man from the state planning board would speak at the April meeting of the Association in the Edgely fire house.

Mr. William Harris of the Civilian Defense Program announced that there will be a test air raid drill for Bucks County on Friday, March 21st at 11:00 a. m.

Scouts Plan For Big Scrap Drive

their services in an active or advisory capacity to guide the destiny of the local troop.

Representing the Fairless Hills Volunteer Fire Company as Institutional Representative is Charles W. Kenny. He will act for the Fire Company, which is sponsoring the Boy Scout movement here, at local and regional meetings concerning scout activities.

The Troop Committee, acting in an advisory capacity to the scouts and scout leaders, has appointed the following men: Chairman, John Rock; Secretary, John Fissinger; Advancement, Stephen Westaby and Ronald A. Schillat; Health and Safety, Edward Kay and Douglas Brown; Finance, Robert McGonegal; Camping and Activities, Joseph Michalski and Dana Criswell; Personnel, Louis Hackett and Rev. James R. Noland; Transportation, Joseph R. Hadd, Jr., and Arthur Brown.

Explorer Advisor; and George W. Miller, Assistant Explorer Advisor. In discussing plans for the future of scouting here, Harding noted that the Bucks County Council is presently conducting a county-wide drive for funds. "The monies collected will help to equip and maintain all scouting activities in Bucks County, our own included," he said. Scouting builds character and physical fitness, and trains these young men to be good citizens, he stated. The fund drive has not yet taken place here, but when it does, a generous contribution will be repaid many times in the development of the scouting organization.

The troop here has been organized into patrols, and patrol leaders selected. Senior patrol leader is Bob Kay, and the scribe is Dave Patton. Patrol leaders are Nick Michalski, Tom Brown, Jim Krivac and John Rock.

Other members of the troop are John Smiley, Eddie Davison, Billy
